DEED OF PROCEEDINGS IN A MEETING

(Annual General Meeting Jubii Europe N.V. – 25 February 2016)

On the twenty-fifth day of February two thousand and sixteen, at the request of the Management Board of Jubii Europe N.V., a public company under Dutch law (naamloze vennootschap), having its official seat in Haarlem, the Netherlands, its office address at Fonteinlaan 7, 2012 JG Haarlem, the Netherlands, and registered in the Commercial Register under number 30162242 (the Company), I, Joyce Johanna Cornelia Aurelia Leemrijse, civil law notary in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, attended the annual general meeting of shareholders of the Company held at the offices of Allen & Overy LLP, Apollolaan 15, 1077 AB Amsterdam, the Netherlands, for the purpose of taking minutes of the meeting. _____

I, civil law notary, established the following: _____
In accordance with Article 30, paragraph 3, of the Articles of Association of the Company, Dr. Frank Martin Dannhoff, residing at Josef Stork Strasse 4, D-33334 Güthersloh, Germany, born in Berlin, Germany, on the seventh day of October nineteen hundred and sixty-one, bearer of a German identity card with number 551703830, chairman of the Supervisory Board of the Company, acted as chairman of the meeting. _____

At twelve o'clock local time (12:00 pm) the chairman welcomed the persons present to the annual general meeting of shareholders of the Company and called the meeting to order. _____

The chairman stated that, as announced in the notice of the meeting and in accordance with Article 30, paragraph 2, of the Company's Articles of Association, the official language of the meeting would be English. _____

(a) Introduction of certain persons.

The chairman began by introducing himself as the sole member of the Supervisory Board attending the meeting. He excused the other members of the Supervisory Board, Mr Manuel Crespo de la Mata, Mr Ignacio Gasper Sintes and Mr Jörn Caumanns, who could not be present at the meeting due to scheduling conflicts. — Then the chairman introduced Dr. Fred Wilsdorf, the CEO of the Company. — The chairman went on to mention the presence of Mr. Wouter Nijmeijer from the Company's accountants of KPMG Accountants N.V. and of the remaining employee of the Company, Mrs Berit Beyer. Then he introduced myself as civil law notary with Allen & Overy LLP and independent Dutch legal counsel to the Company. The chairman stated that he had asked me to act as the secretary of the meeting (as such to be referred to as the Secretary) and to prepare the minutes of the meeting in notarial form. For the purpose of the minutes, the chairman noted that the proceedings at the meeting were being recorded digitally and requested that the persons present first state their name, each time they address the meeting. — Then the chairman asked the Secretary to make the following formal statements regarding the observance of formalities, the order of the meeting and the discussion and voting procedure. —

(b) Formal statements regarding observance of formalities.

The Secretary stated that the meeting had been convened with due observance of all relevant provisions of the law and the Company's Articles of Association, that the notice of the meeting was published in the Bundesanzeiger as well as on the Company's website www.jubii.com on the fourteenth day of January two thousand and sixteen. Copies of the notice were available at the meeting. —

Also available at the meeting were copies of the full agenda of the meeting, copies of the Dutch statutory annual report and annual accounts in respect of the Company's financial year two thousand and fourteen/fifteen (FY14/15). These documents were available for inspection and could be obtained free of charge from the fourteenth day of January two thousand and sixteen at the Company's offices in Haarlem, at Jubii Europe Investor Relations in Rheda-Wiedenbruck, and at Deutsche Bank AG in Frankfurt am Main and were also published on the Company's website www.jubii.com. —

The Secretary then stated that the exact number of shareholders present or represented in the meeting and the number of shares they represented had been counted and announced that the numbers of shares represented at the meeting were two hundred thirty-one million three hundred thirty-two thousand nine hundred and seventy-two (231,332,972), all of which shares could be voted, which meant that seventy-four twenty-fifth hundredths per cent (74.25%) of the issued and outstanding capital of the Company was represented at the meeting. The total of the issued and outstanding shares was three hundred eleven million five hundred seventy-six thousand three hundred and forty-four (311,576,344) shares. —

The Secretary then made the following statements regarding the order of the meeting.

(c) Order of the meeting; discussion and voting procedure.

The Secretary explained that after the introduction, the chairman would proceed with item one (1) of the agenda. Mr Wilsdorf would then be invited to present the report of the Management Board in respect of FY14/15 and give an update on the status of the liquidation process.

The Secretary noted that in respect of each item of the agenda, a round of discussion would be held and the Secretary invited all shareholders present to participate in such discussions. The Secretary stressed that the shareholders should hold any question they might have related to an agenda item until the item was placed before the meeting.

Before moving to the first agenda item the Secretary explained the voting procedures to be followed in detail. The Secretary stated that it followed from Article 31 of the Company's Articles of Association that the chairman of the meeting decided on the method of voting and on the possibility of adopting resolutions by acclamation. The Secretary stated that the chairman had decided that all resolutions would be passed by acclamation, unless one or more persons present objected. At the time a particular vote is to be taken the chairman will ask whether everybody agreed that the proposed resolution concerned be adopted by acclamation. If no objections are voiced, the chairman would conclude that the relevant resolution is adopted by the consenting vote of all votes represented in this meeting according to the attendance list.

The Secretary noted that if any one or more of the persons present objects, the following method of voting will be used. The votes against the proposal concerned will be taken first and then the abstentions; all other shares represented at the meeting according to the attendance list will then be deemed to have been voted in favour of the proposal concerned.

Where this procedure is used, the Secretary will be asked to take down the necessary information and to count the votes. Based on this count, the chairman will proclaim the result of the vote.

The Secretary then noted that all proposed resolutions to be tabled could be adopted with a simple majority of the votes cast.

The chairman then asked if there were any questions regarding the order of the meeting and the method of voting. There were no questions. The chairman then continued with item 1 of the agenda.
